THE WASHINGTON BEE

The Bee
—IS A—
GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!
Do you want reliable news? Do you want a fearless race advocate? Do you want colored trade? Read and advertise in THE BEE!

VOL XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1898. No. 26

SENATOR MARK HANNA—He will lead the McKinley forces for the Presidency in 1900.

Hon. R. A. Alger.
Secretary of War.

The jack of clubs has returned from New York.

Fools will say things that wise men will not dream.

Good men will do good deeds at all times.

Honest people will never suspect the innocent.

If you want to know the news read The Bee.

Be honest with your friends, it will pay you.

North Carolina politicians and their governor ought go and hide themslves

Where was the governor of North Carolina when the red shirts were killing negroes?

The colored editor being forced to leave North Carolina should be investigated.

He didn't leave until one week after he wrote the article.

What does it mean? Don't all speak at once.

Hon. Geo. H. White was elected.

The Afro-American Council will meet and resolute.

If the colored republicans in North Carolina had bought fire arms instead of whisky, they would have had weapons of defense instead of whisky.

The question is what shall be done with the negro.

The cowardly attack that was made on Mr. Seville will not work.

The people of this country should protect their own here instead of going to another country.

Some men talk for fun, while others talk what they don't know.

"All this world is a stage and the people are merely players."

Speak the truth always, it is better than a lie.

It is not every man who grins in your face that you can call a friend.

We have an up to date Chief of Police.

When the Bee predicted all of these outrages, they called it treason.

Will some of the good people tell us what they call it now?

The colored schools are in need of a sewing director.

Nothing wins like success. It is bound to succeed.

The colored man needs to unite in all things.

Think well before you speak.

We never see our mistakes until it is too late.

Don't be in a hurry to tell what you know.

There is philosophy some times in the utterance of a fool.

That depends on who the fool is.

We often magnify our own importance.

Be useful citizens it will benefit you.

Some people never know what they want.

Let all good citizens subscribe to the Bruce monument fund.

Send your subscription to Cashier D. B. McCary of the Capital Savings Bank.

Bruce was a great man in his day and time.

There was an election last week.

Why not place North Carolina under martial law.

Will the next House sent one democratic Congressman from North Carolina?

By what right has the present regime in Wilmington, North Carolina to hold.

What has become of the negro leadership in the present crisis?

Gentlemen don't you all speak at once.

When will the United States take Cuba?

Don't be alarmed the country is safe.

Read the Bee if you want a fearless and independent paper.

Style, Fit and Workmanship GUARANTEED.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

THE ONLY WAY.

The theories being advanced by some of our would-be leaders, touching the duty of the colored citizen at the South, are, to say the least, amusing. Some claim that the only way to live in harmony with the white people and at the same time to keep in tact the elective franchise is to vote with them and disown all allegiance to the republican party. Others advise the colored people to abstain from politics altogether and to turn their attention exclusively toward material development. Neither of these theories is worth the time it take to enunciate them, if we are to attach any importance to manhood, our constitutional and Godgiven rights or our posterity. To pursue the policy of voting with the democrats of the South would produce two direful results. In the first place it would express cowardly fear, an acquiescence in and an endorsement of the heinous methods which characterized the democratic party of the South and a manifestation of knavery and deception hitherto unknown to the colored people. Moreover, the right of franchise would not be kept in tact thereby, for the reason that enforced political affiliation is slavery and slavery is inconsistent with the intelligent exercise of suffrage. In the second place the theory would not work.

The whites at the South have on numerous occasions declared that they would not affiliate with the colored voter and maintained that the provisions declaring his citizenship were unconstitutional It would therefore be worse than folly to seek our manhood rights through the contemplated medium of political prostitution. The advocates of political quiesence are equally in error. For the last fifty years the best men and women in this country have devoted their time, talent and means to the political and intellectual emancipation of the colored people, believing that in them were the instincts and capabilities calculated to develop a manly and progressive people. The pulpit, the rostrum and the press have thundered in defense of the civil and political rights of our people; which culminated in a bloody struggle in which right prevailed. This effort was vigorously kept up until the constitution and the laws clothed the colored people with citizenship and even now the best people in the land bid us God's speed and are doing all within their power to advance our cause. It were worse than ingratitude to ignore the moral forces which have brought us thus far and to bow and cringe before the spirit of tyranny, lawlessness and crime. It is worse than cowardice to give up our rights because a mob demands it. And those who counsel our people lack the courage to fight for themselves and their posterity and should be regarded as alarmists and apologists.

There is but one course to pursue in our unfortunate situation. The way to prove manhood is to act manly. And to act manly is not to bow to error and wrong, but to use every legitimate means to destroy the forces which have of late been urged against us. To do this we must pursue the even tenor of our way striving to elevate our moral, intellectual and material condition and when it is our duty to exercise our suffrage, to do so intelligently, firml and trustingly. Our friends are not yet all gone and if we show ourselves worthy and do our whole duty as men and citizens, there will be an arousal of public conscience which will assuredly result in anacknowledgment and protection of our civil and political rights. The duty of the colored people is plain. We must contend for our rights and look to God and liberty-loving people for assistance in gaining the victory.

THE PRESIDENT.

Considerable speculation is being indulged in regarding the attitude of President McKinley on the wholesale riot and intimidation which took place in North and South Carolina in order to secure the supremacy of the democracy in those States. The spineless attitude of Gov. Russell in the premises was such that the President could not interfere in a direct and positive way, for the reason that Gov. Russell did not declare the State to be in insurrection. While everybody is satisfied that there was organized resistance to constituted authority and that mob-law reigned supreme, no official act of Gov. Russel made that fact known to the President. It is probably, on this account that Mr. McKinley seemed indifferent. But we venture the assertion that the President will not fail to probe the matter to the bottom and to recommend such action by Congress as will protect the citizens of the States from such tyranny, riot and assassination as were exhibited in North and South Carolina. Mr. McKinley is a christian statesman and expresses in his personality the best type of American civilization and he we will surely administer such a rebuke to the contemptible and unlawful methods pursued at the South as will leave no doubt as to his justice and sound republicanism. His faithful allies and admirers North and South expect something from the President which will stay the tide of wrong and oppression which is now running rampant at the South

OUR PREDICTION.

Just as we predicted, the election in North Carolina was characterized by the murdering of colored men, women and children. We also prophesied that the Post would approve of the butchery, all of which has come to pass. A band of cut throats, led by ex-Representative Waddell has driven the republican city officials out of Wilmington and usurped the offices. These redbanded assassins were encouraged to do this bloody deed by the editorials in the Washington Post. Being published in Washington Waddell and his bandits believed that the Post voiced the sentiment of the administration and the nation, and feeling free from any interference from the President they gave full vent to accursed thrist for negro blood. What have they gained? Simply a few offices. What have they lost? Everything worth living for and they have, just as we predicted, aroused the northern conscience and in due time a wave of vengence will sweep over the South which will demolish and destroy Calhounism, Tillmanism and Waddellism and upon their ruin will be erected, for the first time in the history of this republic, the principles of justice. The North and her black allies impatiently await the day and hour.

Mrs. Anna J. Cooper of the colored High school should be taught how to write letters. Her recent impudent letter to the Commissioners against the school trustees ought not to be passed unnoticed. Mrs. Cooper should be asked to step down and out.

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

The result of the elections on Tuesday of last week was no doubt a surprise to the democratic Congressional committee. Notwithstanding the false alarm of negro domination in North Carolina and elsewhere in the South, the republican party won. The American people are no fools. The tactics of thedemocratic party on the eve of every great election about "negro domination" is getting to be nauseating to the people in the North and all other well thinking American citizens. The republican party, at the polls is to be congratulated upon its glorious success and achievements since its organization The success of the party at the polls last week means a perpetuation of a pure and honest government. The stamp of condemnation of last week means more than the success of the republican party

There never was a time in the history of this country that the party needed to succeed as it did in this election.

Dr. J. N. Johnson and Prof. Kelly Miller remind one of two horses runing in opposite direc tions

Mrs. Elizabeth Fairfax Ayres,—The Queen of the Army.

The cowardly attack of certain negro Masons against Mr. Dorsey Seville because he has licked them, certainly demonstrates all that Mr. Seville has said of them. Nobody but a coward would resort to the dirty meanness that those negro Masons resorted to when they filed charges with the city Postmaster against Mr. Seville. What has his place to do with the negro masonic organization? Again the men who filed the charges are irresponsible and without standing in this community. The city Postmaster did right in ignoring such dirty business by such mean negroes. Some negro Masons work just to the opposite of their constitution and still they want to know why white Masons discriminate against them.

Prof. Kelly Miller is a hot house plant. He and Dr. John N. Johnson should both be shipped to some northern or western State; transplanted in some free soil or grafted to some of the black oaks that grow and thrive there. With such exceptions as ex-Gov. Pinchback, Col. Bill Pledger, John Mitchell and John Deveaux, the would be negro leader of the South is a coward and an apologist. You have but to give him an office and though all the country around ran with the blood of his race he would not raise his hand or voice in protest.

The Wasington Times is never at ease unless it publishes sensational scandals about the colored people.

TRIBUTE TO THE COLORED SOLDIER.

HIS GALLANTRY AND HEROISM EXTOLLED—BRILLIANT SPEECHES—MRS. AYRES RECEIVED AN OVATION WHEN SHE AND HER FATHER ENTERED CHURCH. EDITOR W. CALVIN CHASE PRESENTS HER WITH AMERICAN BEAUTY ROSES. BRAVE CAPT. AYRES, A TRUE FRIEND TO THE NEGRO SOLDIER, HONORED. GOV. PINCHBACK'S MASTERLY SPEECH APPLAUDED.

There was a most distinguished and classic audience present on last Monday evening at the Shiloh Baptist church, L street, between 16th and 17th, northwest. Upon the platform were seated Register Lyons, Commissioner John B. Wight, Maj. M. Emmet Urell, Revs. Walter H. Brooks, Geo. W. Lee and J. Anderson Taylor, ex-Gov. P. B. S. Pinchbach, Col. L. M. Saunders, Thomas L. Jones, Esq., and Editor W. Calvin Chase,—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Ayres and her father, Col. Fairfax.

The celebrated Monumental Orchestra dispersed some excellent selections.

The services were held under the management of Rev. J. Anderson Taylor and the following committee: Rufus Delany, chairman; Charles Jackson, Patrick Gant, William B. Mutton and Fred Delany, jr. Selections of patriotic airs were rendered by the Capital city Orchestra.

The exercises were opened by Rev. Walter Brooks, who offered up a fervent prayer for the repose of the souls of the dead. He was followed by the Rev. J. Anderson Taylor, who explained the objects of the memorial services Commissioner J. B. Wight made an address on "The Colored Soldier and Citizen," and made complimentary reference to the faithful colored officials and employes in the service of the District govrnment. Mr. Judson W. Lyons, register of the treasury, spoke of the progress of his race and the friendly interest taken in it by President McKinley.

Great enthusiasm was aroused by the entrance on the platform of Mrs. Ayres and her father. Mrs. Ayres is the wife of Capt. Ayres of the gallant 10th cavalry, who have the credit of saving Col, Roosevelt and his Rough Riders from rout and defeat in the charge up San Juan Hill. She was presented with a mammoth bunch of American Beauty roses by W. Calvin Chase, in elegant and appropriate language, which brought forth a very feeling reply from Mrs. Ayres, who spoke of the brave man of dusky hue who she was pleased to believe idolized her husband.

Major M. Emmet Urell of the 1st District Regiment was called for and gave an interesting account of the gallantry of the colored soldiers in the field and their discipline in camp, both in the civil and Cuban war. He gave great credit to the rank and file of the 9th and 10th Cavalry, respectively, and the 12th and 24th Infantry, respectively. He was followed by Wm. Dickson, who paid tribute to the loyalty, courage and bravery of the soldiers who responded to their country's call, and said the historian of the future would do credit to the negro for his services. He spoke feelingly of Robert Purvis of Philadelphia, Fred Douglass, James Wormley and other colored citizens who were dististinguished in life and honored and revered in death.

Ex-Governor Pinchback, formerly of Louisiana, spoke of the negro and his duty o himself and his country. He referred to the unfortunate race trouble in North and South Carolina, and censured the President for his failure to protect the people of his race from massacre and assassination, and praised the action of Grover Cleveland, who had the nerve to enforce the law by military power when necessity demanded it.

Other addresses were made by Rev. George W. Lee, L. M. Saunders and T. L. Jones, Esq., and the services came to a conclusion by singing the "Star Spangle Banner."

Letters were read from President McKinley, General Alger, Secretary of War; Commissioner Ross and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. The letter from Col. Roosevelt was as follows:

"I regret very much to inform you that it will be impossible for me to be present at the memorial service to be held in your church in honor of the colored soldiers who fell in the late war. You can easily understand how much my time must be taken up and how busy I shall be from now on. Only this prevents me aiding in giving recognition to the great and valuable services to the country of the colored troops. I assure you I shall be with you in spirit."

The committee in connection with Dr. Taylor deserve great credit for the success of this meeting. It was one of the most representative gatherings that ever assembled in this city. At the conclusion of the exercises the invited guests and the audience repaired to the fair room below where an enjoyable time was spent.

DIDN'T DENOUNCE THE PRESIDENT.

1422 Bacon street,
Washington, D. C., Nov. 16, 1898,
Editor of the BEE:

You were present and participated in the memroial services held atShiloh Baptist church on the 14th inst., and heard my speech and know that the report of the meeting which appeared in the Times on the 15th int., is a gross misrepresentation of my uttterances.

I did not denounce the President or use the language imputed me in that paper. It would have been stultification for me to have done so as I am just back from New York, where I made ten speeches for the republican ticket and in each of those speeches I spoke in the highest terms of the President, not only as a wise President and able Chief Magistrate, but a consistent and loyal friend to the colored race.

The Times very ungenerously refused to published a correction of its misrepresentation which I sent it on Tuesday and you will confer a favor upon me by giving this note a space in your mention of the proceedings of the memorial services.

Yours very truly,
P. B. S. Pinchback.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfullly call our readers' attention to a new field of labor that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling assured of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours, THE BEE.

HE ATTACKS THE TEACHERS.

GEORGE W. STEWART, A DISAPPOINTED NEGRO BARBER DENOUNCES THE TEACHERS AS BEING IMMORAL.—A LYCEUM THAT IS USED FOR PERSONAL ATTACKS—THE TEACHERS ACCUSERS.

George W. Stewart, whose occupation is that of a barber, read a paper at a colored lyceum in the Union Wesley church on last Monday night, and among other things he attempted to show that the colored teachers in this city were immoral. It is not known whether this barber means to include his sister in the catagory of these immoral teachers or not. This negro barber in his unwarrantable attack on the teachers has lived in this city a number of years. It has always been a question of conjecture whether he has all that belongs to him or not. There is not a teacher in the colored schools who would associate with this negro barber and for that reason he, no doubt, makes hese personal attacks on them. Some few years ago this barber's brother's daughter stood very low in her class, far below a number of ladies who have since been appointed as teachers. She has made several efforts to get into the schools as a teacher by her brother or uncle, either making personal attacks on the teachers or school officials and all without success. This negro barber has been chronic office seeker ever since his retirement from the Patent Office at a salary of $30 per month. When he is not barbering he is endeavoring to run emancipation parades.

The colored teachers more or less receive such abuse from their inferiors socially, morally and intellectually. It is not surprising to them. There are men in this city who are candidates for the trusteeship of the colored public schools, who are of the opinion that their abuse of the teachers and the school officials will help them. Some time ago one of these candidates had a lady to call at his office, she is a graduate of the Normal school, and before she left, she was insulted. You can always find this class of negroes abusing the teachers. For the past month or so the teachers have been abused by another notorious libertine, who is known to be the companion of prositutes. blacklegs and gamblers. This individual can be seen standing upon public corners with a stick in his hand abusing the colored teachers. They all claim to know so much, but they dare not put their charges in writing before the proper authority They dare not, because they know that the colored public schools of this city contain the purest and the most moral class of teachers in the United States.

All the abuse against, the alleged, immorality of the colored teachers comes from men who either have no social standing themselve or from gamblers, cut throats, blacklegs and libertines The individual to whom the latter portion of this article refers lives in open adultery with a public prostitute.

This is the kind of cattle from which the colored teachers receive abuse.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelpnia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consisis of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking ADVANTAGE

BAILEY'S
IMPROVED TRUSS.

It adjusts itself so perfectly to the rupture that it is impossible for it to become displaced.
It permits the utmost freedom of motion with perfect safety.
All uncomfortable and injurious steel spring pressure is avoided.
The pad is held in place by woven bands, which retain an equal pressure in all positions of the body.
It can be worn in bed, a great desideratum to the young as tending to a perfect cure.
It is the only suitable truss for children and females.
The proper amount of pressure can be brought to bear and maintained in any position without pinching or harm to the wearer.
It will cure hernia if placed on the patient sufficiently early.
Excepting umbilical, it is the best truss ever offered for all kinds of hernia.
It is so perfect and comfortable in its adjustment that the patient in a short time forgets he is wearing it. (See the certificate of Mr. Daniel Johnson.)
Sent postage paid to any address on receipt of price; $3 for single and $4 for double truss
In ordering, give location of hernia, right or left side, and measurement. Satisfaction given or money refunded when the truss is returned in good order. Address:

X.—Of all the bad habits I dislike most, it is to see any one eating in a street car. It is not only a breach of etiquette, but it shows illbreeding. Also chewing is another thing that no young girl will indulge in.

Gertrude.—One can be fashionable and yet not look stylish. Fashions are becoming to every one. One is dressed well when he is becomingly dressed, which means style.

Annie.—It is rumored that your friend has made another selection. Do not alarmed as long as he is true to you. Hearsay has broken up many a happy home.

Carrie.—You are too dark to wear blue. A dark brown person can wear dark gray, navy blue or chestnut brown with trimming of black velvet. Because others looks well in certain color don't think that you will look equally so.

A. T.—Relatives are not the most pleasant people in the world. Strangers will oft times make better friends. Do not worry, your case is not the only one.

V.—Never attempt to live beyond your income. Don't try to show to the world that you are living well when you know it is impossible for you to keep it up.

H.—No honest person can love two persons at the same time without being false to both.

B.—A gentleman who fails to see his most admired friend on Sundays, you can just put it down that he loves the other. Sunday is a day on which friends love to meet.

Clive:—Don't worry as it brings crow feet and wrinkles nor do not allow other people's business to interest you more than your own.

Kate.—Fortune has turned. All that comes to him who waiteth.

Alice.—Your promotion is a deserved one. Merit will find a way.

Annie:—Your children miss you very much. You can only be a model wife ever you go. Your smiles are fascinating.

Ed.—You are a little too fickle and much inclined to believe that all men fall in love with you on first sight. Every time the opposite sex says a word he doesn't mean it These pleasant little words are often said just. It is your womanly qualities.

Jack.—The only means that you have to know is to read such books as will give you the information.

A. T.—A young lady should be very careful with whom she associates. It is not enough care taken in the selection of those we select as associates.

M. T.—Your reading should be of the select character By all means it should be solid as well as instructive.

I like to see a girl who demands her rights and see that she gets them. When a gentleman is in company with a lady and they meet one of his or her gentleman acquaintances, he should by all means raise his hat. This shows respect for the lady, also on parting the hat should be lifted If this latter point should be neglected one is at liberty to ask "what is the matter."

A person who does or says a wrong thing and tries to put the blame on another is no more than a thief.

Fashion:—The nobby little short coat with cutaway, double breasted vest are very "natty." Hats are not worn so far over the eyes as hereto fore.

Julie:—Women with large feet are fond over the style of the broad toe "Miss Miller" shoe, which makes a large foot look twice its natural size.

Educators:—When respectable people refuse to associate with the low and degrading they are oft-times ridiculed. Such is the case with an agency for a man who has not sense enough to write and less sense to read a slanderous article written by a second party who is too much of a coward to show his hand.

Jesse:—Yes, Mr. Terrell is a fine instructor He knows what and how to teach. You are fortunate to be in his class.

Casey:—You are right when you say husband and wife cannot be "chums." I have seen them fighting when the third party interfered, then would attack the peacemaker. Never put any confidence in what a married man says, except his wife is present. The same rule applies to married women.

Mormon:—I don't believe in seventh day adventers, mediums, neither christian science. It is a waste of money and time to fool with such people.

Ed.—The only way to make a heavy burden light is to do your duty cheerfully, very often thoughts of doing a thing is more laborous than the work.

Ed.—Your visit in the city was enjoyed by your friends, which are legion. Dame rumor says you are soon to return and claim your own.

Don't borrow this paper from your neighbor and say you don't read it. Neither criticise it, because it is a county, when you wont pay your subscription.

Don't expect of others what you are unwilling to do yourself.

Let home affairs stay behind closed doors.

SECRET ORDERS.

To the different bodies of the 32nd degree Mystic Shrine and Royal and Select Masters, in connection with the article published by me last week, I have the proper proof that I did not refuse to turn over the books &c, belong to the Jones faction. In a letter sent by me to Mr. Jones, dated Oct., 6th, after touching upon certain matters, I told him that I would turn all papers over to the Ill. Magnus L. Robinson, 33°; as they were of no earthly good to me, forthe simple reason that the bodies I am working with use other names, altogether different. The dirty attack made against me at the Post office is the result of a dirty combination formed in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Jones. in writing letters, touches upon matters which in time he forgets. In reply to the article of October 29th, published in the BEE, it is a great pity that the name of a man who is dead and cannot speak for himself, has got to be brought out at this stage of the game. Major F. C. Revells, 33°; was a man of standing here at Washington and well thought off. He always conducted himself as a gentleman and a good citizen. I never believe in fighting dead people. The following letter is reproduced from the original:

N. B.—Whenever you see a dash—— it signifies that the sentence is unfit for publication.

Chicago, Ill., Feb., 23, 1896.

Ill. D. F. Seville, 33; Grand Secretary General H. E.

Dear Sir and Brother—Whenever those ——namely: T. A. Jackson, Jas. O. Bamfield and their foolish followers state to yon and tell the Masons in your city that I have been expelled from my Masonic Lodge or any branch or part of masonry you can tell them that they are unmitigated liars and falsifiers of the blackest and deepest dye, and if they attempt to expel or suspend you or any of our men in the Blue House I will come to Washington, D. C., and at once organize and establish a Blue Lodge, under the Supreme Council of the A. A. S. R. and give them a charter and they will be just as legal as any they have. You will remember that according to Masonic Law, that in this country many years ago, lodges were organized under the Supreme Council of the A. A. S. R. and we have now at any time a perfect right to do it whenever we get ready.

Yours fraternally,
John G. Jones, 33°;
3717 Armour ave.

N. B.—Bro. Jones is right, for instance, take the several Supreme Councils of Europe and Spain, who has established at Philadelphia, Pa., Blue lodges, Belgium, Turkey, Egypt, Argentine Republic and other places who hold jurisdiction over the Blue lodges. Relative to the split mentioned by Mr. Jones at Grand Rapids, Mich., that split was caused by virtue of the fact that Mr. T. A. Jackson went there and conferred the 96°. The brethren headed by J. A. Bell, 33°. wrote Mr. Jackson up. The article in question was reproduced in the columns of this paper. The out come was that the brethren split. For further light we will reproduce a letter received, dated July 28th 1897. We also have another interesting letter from Grand Rapids, dated Oct., 31st 1898; which explains and gives much light upon the subject. Relative to bogus bodies of the Mystic Shrine, there are four factions now at work in the United States, among our people and from a letter received from a prominent Mason in the West, (state rite) there is another on foot. I will state that if there is any more underhanded railroad work done in the futuae I will reproduce from the originals, the proceeding of several tea parties here in 1895 we rest here
